

Marilyn Livingstone, MBE

[marilyn.livinstone@adamsmith
globalfoundation.com](mailto:marilyn.livinstone@adamsmithglobalfoundation.com)

Marilyn Livingstone is currently a Director with the Adam Smith Global Foundation and has been involved with the Charity since its inception. Marilyn currently Chair's the Adam Smith 2023 Partnership Group which is organising the Adam Smith's Tercentenary celebrations. Marilyn's work with the Foundation has concentrated on the Lecture and wider Festival over the past few years. She is also a Board Member of the Cottage Family Centre where she has been involved for more than 30 years working with the Cottage team in supporting those in our community who are facing economic and social deprivation. Before retiring Marilyn's working life included 18 years as a Lecturer at Fife College culminating in her becoming Head of its Business School. She was also elected to the Scottish Parliament in 1999 and served for 12 years. Her hobbies include walking, cycling and reading.

