Sally is the current chair of The Adam Smith Global Foundation and has been involved with the Foundation since 2019. She is originally from Auchtertool and now lives and works Kirkcaldy as a partner in McKenzies Solicitors. Sally is also involved with various other local charities in Kirkcaldy and surrounding areas. A rugby player in her day, Sally is still a keen follower of rugby and advises the Board of her local rugby club. She is currently Dean of the Kirkcaldy Faculty of Solicitors and enjoys watching and participating in various sports in her spare time together with organising her firm's social calendar.
